Please attach a letter explaining your decision to convert your child to Judaism. You should provide details of the religious life of your family and your synagogue involvement.

In the case of an adoption, the letter should detail when and where the adoption took place, and you should include copies of legal documents that show that you have full custody of the child.

In all cases this form is to be signed by both parents. If for any reason it is not possible to have both parents sign, you must provide us with proof that you have sole custody of the child. We are not able to convert a child without the consent of all legal guardians.

After completing this form, please sign the statement on the back and send it in, together with the registration fee to Rabbi Chaim Weiner at the address below.

The registration fee is currently £122.50.

For payment information visit: <http://www.europeanmasortibetdin.org/bet-din-payments-c.html>

*Please note that there is an additional 'Court Fee' when you complete the conversion programme.
The court fee in 2019 is £245.*

By signing this statement I attest to the fact that:

1. I have been notified that by registering for the conversion programme there is no guarantee that my child will be converted to Judaism. This remains entirely to the discretion of the Beit Din that will oversee the conversion.
2. I understand that the conversion will be carried out under the auspices of the European Beit Din of the Masorti Movement. There is no guarantee that the conversion will be recognised by Orthodox authorities, or any other Rabbinic authority.
3. I understand that I will be expected to provide a Jewish environment for my child by:
 - a. attending synagogue services regularly
 - b. practicing Jewish customs and ceremonies
4. (Boys Only) I have been informed that before conversion my child will be required to undergo circumcision or 'Hatafat Dam' as appropriate.
